

Local Author Readings

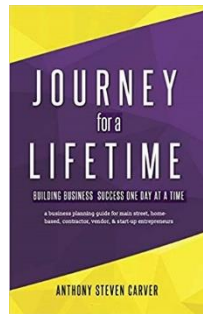

We have two readings on

Thursday December 13th

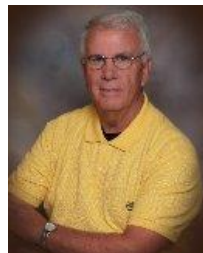

at 4:00 pm

at 7:00 pm

Steve Carver has decades of experience as a small business owner.

He was one of the first to use online sales in the farm equipment sector.

Mr. Carver has presented over 75 seminars about small business management.

He will read from JOURNEY FOR A LIFETIME, a book that gives practical advice and his philosophy of business management.

Jeanette Sneed enjoys writing for and working with children and the elderly.

She currently works as a preschool teacher at Gospel Tabernacle Child Development & Educational Center.

Ms. Sneed has lived in Dunn since 1987 and is a native of Peekskill, New York.

She will read from her book Momma's Christmas which tells the story of an elderly lady who, in the face of adversity, finds the true meaning of Christmas.

Dunn Public Library
110 E. Divine Street
Dunn, NC (910)892-2899